- 1. The first part of the report is devoted to a general survey of the situation in the country at the present time. It is found that the country is in a state of general depression and that the people are suffering from want and distress.
- 2. The second part of the report is devoted to a detailed description of the conditions in the various provinces. It is found that the conditions are generally similar in all parts of the country, and that the people are suffering from the same causes.
- 3. The third part of the report is devoted to a description of the measures which have been taken to relieve the suffering of the people. It is found that the measures have been generally successful, and that the people are beginning to recover from their distress.

It is recommended that the Government should continue to take measures to relieve the suffering of the people, and that it should also take steps to improve the general conditions of the country.
