

Shashikant Srivastava, Assistant Professor

Mr. Shashikant Srivastava is working in Department of Civil Engineering as an Assistant Professor. He is having more than 8 years teaching & administrative experience in different institutions and universities. He has completed Master of Technology in Construction Engineering & Management. He had published 14 research papers in International and National repute journals. He is also active member in many associations and also member in Editorial board in different Journals. He has guided 8 M.Tech scholars in the fields of Structural Engineering and Construction Management. His area of expertise is Concrete Technology, Project Management, Construction Management, Low Cost Housing and Alternate Construction Materials.