UTTAR PRADESH PHARMACY COUNCIL

The Uttar Pradesh Pharmacy Council is established under the Pharmacy Act, 1954, and is the regulatory body for the pharmacy profession in the State of Uttar Pradesh.

The Council is responsible for the regulation and control of the pharmacy profession in the State of Uttar Pradesh. It is empowered to make rules and regulations for the registration of pharmacists, the conduct of examinations, and the maintenance of standards of pharmacy education and practice. The Council also has the authority to discipline pharmacists who are found to be guilty of professional misconduct.

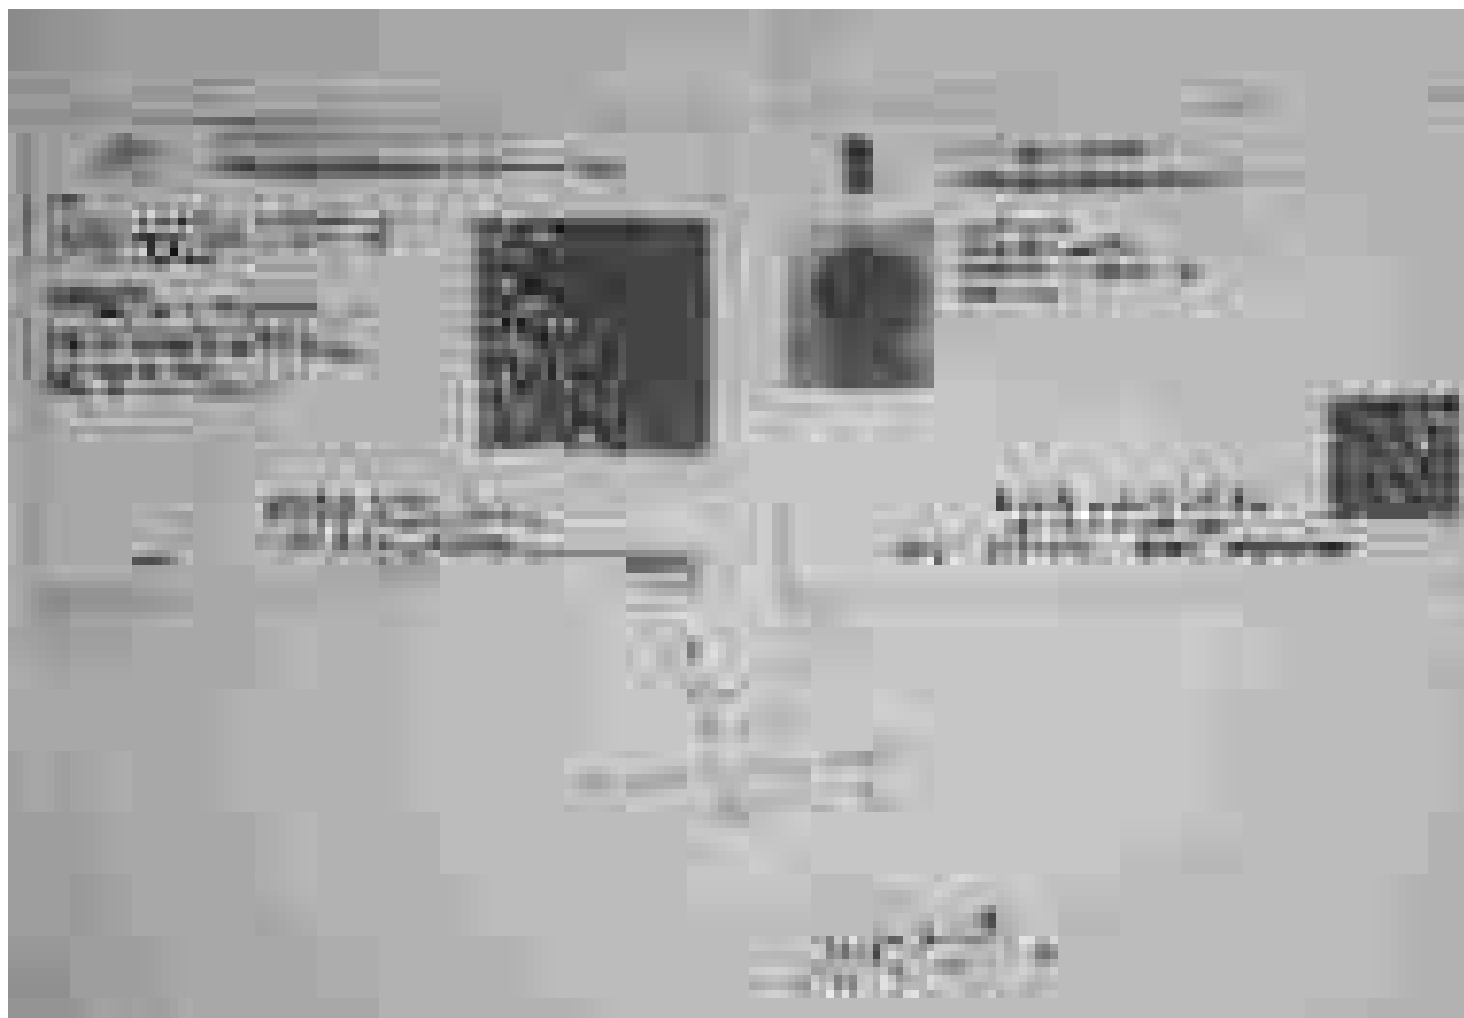

The Council is composed of representatives of the various pharmacy professions in the State, including pharmacists, chemists, and pharmaceutical scientists. It also includes representatives of the Government and the public. The Council meets regularly to discuss and decide on matters relating to the pharmacy profession in the State.

The Council is headquartered in Lucknow, the capital of Uttar Pradesh. It has regional offices in various parts of the State to facilitate the registration and regulation of pharmacists. The Council is committed to the highest standards of pharmacy practice and to the promotion of public health through the provision of quality pharmaceutical services.

The Council is a statutory body and is empowered to enforce its rules and regulations. It has the authority to suspend or revoke the registration of pharmacists who are found to be in breach of the rules. The Council also has the power to impose fines and penalties on pharmacists who are found to be guilty of professional misconduct.

The Council is a member of the Indian Pharmaceutical Association (IPA) and is committed to the promotion of the interests of the pharmacy profession in India. It also works closely with the Government of Uttar Pradesh to ensure the effective implementation of pharmacy laws and regulations in the State.
